POLICE
ROCHELLE PARK

BERGEN COUNTY, NEW JERSEY

September 7, 2021
August 2021 Monthly Report(s)

Dear Committee Members/Appropriate Authority,

August started off with a great Community Event – our Inaugural National Night Out! At this event, members of the community were treated to meeting and greeting their emergency services and getting to see the preparedness we have to provide our services/function.

The police department continued to perform our mission of protecting our residents and serving their needs as evidenced by the statistics provided in this report as well as conducting numerous “behind the scenes” work to keep the department running at optimal levels.

The detective bureau once again continues to conduct investigations into past and current criminal activity around the township including several thefts of property, criminal mischief and by extortion as well as handle Discovery and Expungement Requests for the Municipal and Superior courts.

On the administrative end, we continued to see the return on investment in the trust of responsibility in our team members. They continue to work hard and put the very best of themselves in projects large and small. We have also begun working a security detail for a local business that has not only provided a more safe and secure facility, but has provided revenue in administrative fees to the amount of approximately $10,000.00 for the month of August.

One year in, and I remain prouder and more humbled to lead this department and remain in complete awe of the heroism they display daily as evidenced by their fearlessness during the post tropical cyclone Ida in rescuing people from flood waters.

Yours in public safety,

CHIEF  #136

Chief Dean M. Pinto
